

Kern is consultancy

A close and intensive cooperation with our customers is essential for our work. This is how we find optimum and innovative solutions jointly with our customers.

We listen to you and follow your thoughts with our own ideas. When the individual concept is shaped, our customers not only profit from our 50 years` experience, but also from our detailed know-how. We see ourselves as your competent service provider in magnetic technology.

Our corporate philosophy is therefore focussed on integrated support of the customer - starting with the idea and conception and embraces all phases of the product`s life cycle.
